

Hermes loves high shine and wool this season

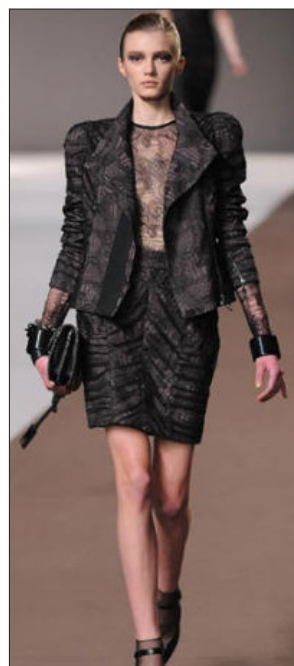

SECOND SKIN

Dominate your winter wardrobe with high shine fabrics, leather, chunky knits and a few lace trimmings for this seasons must have look.

Lace, High Shine, Leather and Chunky Knits exude the essence of female dominance entwined with a dollop of 'sexy'. Be it in the office, at home or socialising our bang on trend catwalk forecast for a/w

2010 will set you up for an eclectic winter wardrobe like never before. High Shine trims on wool and leather ruled Hermes' runway, whereas in London, emerging designer Body Amr's collection was modelled by possibly the fiercest models at London Fashion Week, adorning high shine jumpsuits, leather thigh high warmers and killer mesh heels. For the perfect look wear chunky knits with a high shine jumpsuit, or leather mini.
